

1st TC in Manchester, United Kingdom 20-29 April 2018

The overall aim of the long-term training course is to train youth workers, youth leaders to be more aware of different migration schemes in Europe and to know how to deal with challenges resulting from migration, how to use opportunities created by migration in their work with young people. Our participants will be ready to develop projects connected to migration and mobility, engage young migrants in their activities and foster mobility among youth. They can also help to change the general image of migration in society and promote tolerance and positive attitude towards immigrants (and refugees in particular) in society.

S.M.A.R.T. objectives of the training course are:

- ✓ Fostering reflection on different dimensions of migration and mobility, understanding the theoretical framework of migration trends and new migration in Europe and its global effects; Preparing youth workers and youth leaders in addressing the challenges and opportunities resulting from migration for young people /society as a whole;
- ✓ Raising the competence of youth workers and youth leaders about the push and pull factors of migration and causes and consequences of migration and how to prevent negative effects of migration (such as discrimination) in society;
- ✓ Understanding the EU policies towards migration and mobility and local realities in participating countries and learning good practices;
- ✓ Developing 20 local and 10 European youth projects and run it during the practice phase in connection with the migration and support the integration of young refugees, immigrants and migrants.

The methodology of the project:

The project will be based on non-formal educational methodology. Participants will learn about key terms of migration, history of migration, triggers and causes of migration (including personal and social causes), push and pull factors and media impact. Participants will have chance to exchange experiences and learn from other countries' experiences. They will also learn about different methods to use to cope with migration and refugee issues and raise awareness about it, but also how to involve people with different cultural backgrounds (who immigrants usually are) in activities with local community. We will talk about mobility options in European Union for young people (like European Voluntary Service, etc.).

We plan to use non-formal methods, such as group work, role-play, simulations, reflection, online research, movie, work in pairs, practical workshops, activity in town etc.

Activities

The activities of the training course will be organized in the Sharon Youth Centre (Cornbrook St, Manchester, M16 7QB).

How do you reach Manchester?

The best way to reach Manchester is to fly to the Manchester Airport (MAN) directly.

The Liverpool John Lennon Airport is around 45 minutes far from Manchester, so this can be an option as well. Or you can land in London, if you can find cheaper flights to there then take a train to Manchester.

Then you can plan your trip to the hotel by any mean of transport you would like to use on this site:
